

A photograph of four children of diverse backgrounds celebrating outdoors. On the left, a young girl with brown hair, wearing an orange long-sleeved shirt, has her mouth wide open in a shout and her right arm raised in a fist. Next to her, a boy with light brown hair, wearing a dark blue zip-up jacket over a yellow shirt, also has his mouth open and his arms around the girl. In the center, a boy with a shaved head, wearing a red, white, and blue striped long-sleeved shirt, is laughing heartily with his mouth open. To the right, a girl with brown hair, wearing a dark grey sweater over a blue shirt, is smiling and holding a white and black soccer ball. The background is a bright, sunny outdoor setting with lush green trees and a clear blue sky.
